Know body and church are protected by everyone having the same Mind of Christ. 2	Accept that there is One Source of infinite space and intimate inner peace. 3	See a stranger rightly. 4	Spend time actually singing unto your Lord!. 5	Review hymn 263 6	Claim your satisfaction as a reflection of God's satisfaction with all creation. 7	Affirm that the grace, peace, gratitude, and power in Paul's letter is ours today. 8
Explore God being the inner and outer aspects of all existence. 9	Give thanks for God's constant security and hope. 10	Share something beautiful with someone. 11	Strive to see all people in power as safe havens of protection. 12	Review hymn 584 13	Embrace your spiritual individuality; see yourself as 'formidable in truth.' 14	Accept God's committed connection with you. 15
Entertain the 'united spiritual consciousness' that has 'no impediment to eternal bliss.' 16	Treat environmental concerns by trusting God's wise establishment of all. 17	Find admirable qualities in others and tell them if appropriate. 18	Explore singing the honor of God's name and making praise glorious! 19	Review Hymn 45 20	Practice translating all things back into Spirit. 21	Acknowledge God's powerful, infinite understanding in your life. 22
Rest in the reality of divine completeness. 23	Considering our Pastor as the 'tablets,' have you 'run' with it? 24	Listen for an opportunity to be a comfort to someone. 25	Humbly accept the promised 'joy in the Lord.' 26	Review hymn 176 27	Claim your place as one 'prepared to receive Christ Truth.' 28	Rejoice in laboring in the harvest field of Christian Science. 29
Identify everyone as 'honest seekers for Truth.' 30
